Amish Acres Historic Farm & Heritage Resort

For over fifty years, Amish Acres has developed into a major cultural heritage place-based tourist attraction. Since the foundational pieces of Amish Acres were laid, it has grown to be a nationally recognized destination-of-choice for over 150,000 visitors annually. Amish Acres nationally known Arts & Craft Festival has drawn, annually for 57 years, artists from 30 states and 60,000 visitors over four days in August.

Round Barn Theatre and Lobby

The 400 seat Round Barn Theatre was created from a 1911 round barn that was dismantled and reconstructed at Amish Acres. The state-of-the-art theatre has become the national home of Plain and Fancy, becoming the longest running annually produced musical in America, and has expanded into repertory musical theatre by presenting six other Broadway classics each season. The artistic and acting company comes from national auctions. The theatre has its own costume and scenic shops.

Greeting Barn

The Greeting Barn was built in 1876. It was dismantled, moved to Amish Acres and reconstructed to become the welcome center for the historical interpretation of the farm including guided tours, horse and buggy rides, and domestic crafts. Three documentary films are shown throughout the day in the attached Locke Township Meeting House. Souvenirs and handcrafted gifts fill the shelves.

Locke Township Meeting House

The building is attached to the Greeting Barn and is the movie theatre for the documentary films, houses the theatre's second stage productions and is used for private and corporate events.

Restaurant Barn and Barn Loft Grill

The 400 seat restaurant is constructed from two 1870's bank barns, the front housing the retail bakery and restaurant counter; the upstairs grill includes the wine tasting room. An 8,000 square foot kitchen provides the food services and bakery products.

The Inn

The Inn at Amish Acres is a quaint country inn with 62 guest rooms, kitchen, dining room, spacious lobby and meeting room. Each room is decorated in furnishings that emulate the Amish lifestyle of the area. It is the host hotel for Amish Acres sitting along its fence line.

W.H. Best & Sons Meat Market

This 18' x 19' two-story log house was built circa 1860. It was moved from its original location on U.S. Highway 6, twelve miles east of Amish Acres in 1973. The market is named for an original family meat market in Nappanee. It features a wooden walk-in cooler.

Soda Fountain & Fudgerly

The most historic building preserved at Amish Acres is the 20' x 30' log house built by Reverend R.J. Smid, a Dutch Mennonite, who emigrated from the village of Balk in the Netherlands on May 9, 1853. From Mrs. Smid's diary, "On November 3, 1853, at last, with God's blessing, we moved into our house, even though it was still in bad condition to live in." Because of tolerance, this was the only Dutch Mennonite congregation to immigrate to America. The antique marble soda fountain from another day is a one-of-kind treasure.

Kuhns Cider & Grist Mill

The mill was originally constructed in 1895 on the farm across the road, then moved to Amish Acres circa 1915 where it has remained. The press has a capacity of nearly 3,000 bushels of apples a day. Neighboring farmers would line up at 5 am with their wagons full of apples waiting to be pressed into cider.
